

Jeff Wiseman - Press kit

Jeff Wiseman graduated from the University of Toronto's Operatic Performance Program with an honours degree. He released his first CD, "First Time Out", in 1995. After touring throughout Canada and Scotland, he settled into raising his family in Sudbury. In 2007, he began touring again, playing to appreciative audiences throughout Ontario. He released his second CD, "Silver Eyes", in Sudbury to a full house in October of 2008. In addition to his arresting voice, he is skilled on piano and guitar.

Jeff is self-employed giving private voice lessons at Laurentian University and Marymount College. He also directs the Sudbury Chambers Singers Choir and the Sudbury Firefighters Choir. His flexible work schedule allows him the opportunity to tour.
